on 21st September 2022. In the year 1981, the United Nations General Assembly unanimously declared a day dedicated to "commemorating and strengthening the ideals of peace both within and among all nations and peoples." The first International Day of Peace was observed in 1982, and September 21 was designated as Peace Day This year's theme is "End racism. Build peace." Secretary-General António Guterres said racism continues to poison institutions, social structures and everyday life in every society. Peace is the path we take for bringing growth and prosperity to society. If we do not have peace and harmony, achieving political strength, economic stability and cultural growth will be impossible. Moreover, before we transmit the notion of peace to others, it is vital for us to possess peace within. All faculty members were present for the session.
